Kentucky Editors Enjoying Themselves.

It was a wise thing when the Kentucky editors decided not to be jostled about over the country in Pullman cars this year, for they are now having the best of time and enjoying themselves in true Kentucky style under the shade trees at Crab Orchard Springs.

The editors are there with their wives, sweethearts, "cousins and their aunts," numbering about 325 people, all of them having the time of their life at the annual outing of the Kentucky Press Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Remington, of the Democrat, and Mr. and Mrs. Swift Champ, of the News, are present representing Paris.

The business meeting was called to order Tuesday morning, and in the afternoon a euchre was given the ladies.

There were various contests, and the winners were as follows:

Shooting Contest—James Ripy, of the Courier-Journal, first; Tim Needham, of the Williamstown Courier, second; S. W. Menefee, Danville, Advocate, third.

Fat Man's Race—J. R. Lemon, Mayfield Messenger, first; James Menefee, Danville Advocate, second; James Ripy, third.

Apple-eating Contest—J. W. Cardwell, Harrodsburg Herald, first; Jas. Menefee, second.

Swimming Contest—J. W. Cardwell, first; Mr. Lasley, of Louisville, second.

Lean Man's Race—Mr. Callison, of the Middlesboro Record, first; Tom Pickles, Richmond Register, second.

Tug of War—(Seven on a side). Won by Capt. S. W. Menefee's side, defeating Capt. Barlett, of the Lawrenceburg News. The prizes were quite handsome.

The banquet at night took place in the large dining hall, T. C. Underwood, of the New Era, Hopkinsville, acting as toastmaster. Toasts were responded to as follows: "The Ladies," by Thomas Pickles, of the Richmond Register; "Just Between Us," by Paul Moore, of the Earlington Bee; "That Reminds Me," by Green Keller, of Carlisle; "For Better or Worse," by Robert J. McByrde, of the Louisville Times; "Seeing Things," by Harry Sommers, of the Elizabethtown News; "Our Wives and Sisters," by Reed Embry, of Danville; "Just a Word," by Charles Meacham, of Hopkinsville.

The address of welcome at the opening session was delivered by the Hon. R. W. Miller, of Richmond, and the response was by Clarence E. Woods, the association orator.

President Louis Landrum, of the Lancaster Record, then delivered his annual address, which was very interesting, which could not be otherwise, coming from Louis Landrum. J. R. Lemon, of the Mayfield Messenger, made a splendid talk on, "The Successful Country Weekly." Henry M. Caldwell, of Louisville, read an entertaining paper "On Advertising From Three Standpoints."

CLOSING SESSION.

The closing session of the annual meeting of the Association was not less interesting than those that had gone before. Numerous speeches, some witty, others in more serious vein, but all very much to the point, interested the scribes and those who came to see and hear. There was a round-table talk, "As to Legislation," with Henry R. Lawrence as the engineer to safely guide any possible wanderers through rocky places. The full list of speakers and their subjects follows:

"Cash Subscriptions a Success," P. M. Duncan, Brandenburg Messenger; "A Crack at Creation," S. W. Linebaugh, Russellville News; "The Semi-Weekly—a Comparison," Swift Champ, Paris BOURBON NEWS; "United We (ought to) Stand," Geo. W. Albrecht, Middlesboro News; "The Daily and Its Lessons," Chas. I. Stewart, Lexington Herald; "The Associate Editor," Mrs. Bettie B. Campbell, Somerset Journal; "Official Advertising and So Forth," George S. Lee, Carrollton News.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, E. A. Sullivan; Vice President, David M. Wallace; Secretary, W. Vernon Richardson.

Judge Cantrill to Resign.

A Frankfort dispatch to a Louisville afternoon newspaper Tuesday gives the following interesting bit of inside news about Judge Cantrill and the Court of Appeals:

What is considered a practically authoritative statement is made of the approaching resignation from the bench of the Court of Appeals of Judge James E. Cantrill.

The resignation is expected to be presented about September 15, and either Mr. John D. Carroll, of Henry county, or Judge Watts Parker, of Lexington, will be appointed to the vacancy.

Within the last few days statements have been made by members of Judge Cantrill's family that Judge Cantrill has determined that if he is unable to occupy the bench upon the convening of the Court of Appeals in September he will then forward his resignation to Gov. Beekham.

Simultaneously with this comes the announcement that while Judge Cantrill's health shows some improvement, his physicians do not think that he will be able to do any work for at least a year.

Court of Appeals business has been seriously discommoded by his absence, many cases being hung up because they need the decisive vote of the seventh judge, and Cantrill realizes this.

The Paris Electric Light Company fixed at $15,000.
